

BANTAM AA

Head Coach Peter Manza

Peter Manza is pleased to be returning to the Bantam "AA" program next year with the Red Wings organization, after guiding the 2009-10 Peewee team to success. This will be the 5th year Peter has been a head coach with the Red Wings program. He has been coaching for over 25 years, in minor hockey, with both girls' and boys' hockey teams, as Head Coach or Assistant coach at various levels, including house league, select, and rep A/AA/AAA. He is an Intermediate Level qualified coach, and particularly enjoys overseeing the development of younger players.

Peter has held an executive position of league Head Coach for another girls' minor hockey association, and was also a previous winner of the Aeros (Annunciation) Minor Hockey Coach of the Year Award. His daughter enjoyed a very positive experience playing for several years with the Red Wings, before heading to university, including an exciting trip to the Ontario Winter Games with the Red Wings Midget AA team, on which Peter was an Assistant Coach.

Coach Eddie Aiello

For the past four years, Eddie Aiello, has assisted with the Peter with the younger Red Wings teams. Prior to joining Peter, Eddie was an assistant coach for the Red Wings Bantam AA team for three years. Eddie is a certified fitness instructor. Eddie is married and has three non-hockey playing daughters.
